COMMUNITY LAY DIRECTOR

De Colores Sisters and Brothers!

I am so excited to see everyone at this month's Gathering, which includes a Potluck at 6pm! We will get to meet and greet all those women who just completed Walk #60, which I hear has been called the "best Walk ever!" Please come fellowship with us and welcome our new Emmaus sisters. And, as always, we will worship, commune and hear from a very special guest speaker.

Our Community Board has five people ending their terms this December. We are looking for five more people to join us in our mission to present opportunities for fellowship and growth in our Christian walks. If you are interested in being one of those people, please contact any board member. Also, feel free to ask us questions about what we do or how you can get plugged in!

Keep God in the center of your heart, your home, and your relationships as life gets busier this fall. He will be your strong foundation!

Be Blessed!

MEN'S WALK #61

Walk 61 and April 2020 seems far off but actually it is not. Team applications are trickling in very slowly. It is time to get them in as the Team Selection Committee has set a date for team proposals. The leadership team has to meet to formulate a plan and we want you to be a part of it. As men our tendency is to procrastinate, BUT now is the time. We really need to receive those applications - ASAP. Let's saddle up and take this bronco for a ride. Applications are on the website and you can click here for the link. Questions email Steve Stricklin at ld.walk61@gmail.com or call 210.379.3349
